SHORT DIALOGUE

- Yes, yes.

Answer my questions, please:

1. Do you feed oooooo?
2. Do you dance at wide room?
3. Do you dose ooooooo?

One more questions:

1. Do you speak English?

/ Endre Tót/

1. You need not read everything.
2. You need not read everything.

/ I have to say everything twice, so that I can be understood. - Endre Tót /

Miss H. P. asked me /Andre Tôt/, why don't I say anything?

Answer: Because the word is beyond correct perception of the word, awareness of the word depends on a system of meaning.

Two Poems

To-morrow, and to-morrow, and to-morrow,
Creeps in this petty pace from day to day.
To the last syllable of recorded time;
And all our yesterdays have lighted fools
The way to dusty death. Out, out, brief candle!
Life's but a walking shadow; a poor player,
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage,
And then is heard no more: it is a tale
Told by an idiot, full of sound and fury, Signifying nothing.

Oo-oooooo, ooo oo-oooooo, ooo oo-oooooo,
Oooooo oo oooo oooooo oooo oooo ooo oo ooo.
Oo ooo oooo oooooooo oo oooooooo oooo;
Ooo ooo ooo oooooooo oooo oooooooo ooooo
Ooo ooo oo ooooo ooooo. Ooo, ooo, ooooo oooooo!

Ooo oooo oo ooooo oo oooo: oo oo o oooo
Oooo oo oo ooooo, oooo oo ooooo ooo oooo,

GLADNESS STORIES

I AM GLAD if I can be thinking about something at last, as it often happens that I don't think about anything, I'm simply bored. So one day when I'd been lying on my Dead-double-bed for hours doing nothing, I suddenly let out a deep sigh. I began to think deeply about the way I could make a document of it for posterity.

I AM GLAD if I can be thinking about something at last, as it often happens that I don't think about anything, I'm simply bored. So one day when I'd been lying on my Daad-double-bed for hours doing nothing, I suddenly let out a deep sigh. I began to think deeply about the way I could make a document of it for posterity.

I AM GLAD if I can ask something, because it often happens to me that I can't ask anybody anything. Then after a while I want more and more to ask something at last. So once I asked a passer-by on Ku'damm: „Ooooo ooo oooo oo oo-oo oooo oooooo?“ „It's absolutely impossible“ he said, laughing aloud.

When I was in Alexanderplatz in East-Berlin I went up to somebody and whispered in his ear: „Genosse! ICH BIN FROH wenn ich dir etwas zuflüstern kann.“ Then I looked around carefully and disappeared.

In Berlin, one fine, sunshiny day I was calmly walking in the street. I didn't think of anything. Suddenly, everything came to my mind. I got very sad. But a little bit later I forgot everything. I'm glad that I forget everything.

I was aimlessly loafing around in the streets of Copenhagen, when suddenly I felt like telegraphing. I went to the postoffice right away: I AM GLAD IF I TELEGRAPH.

So I safely went home.

I'm always glad of those days, when nothing happens to me, except that I wake up in the morning and go to bed in the evening.

*But a little bit later I forgot everything.
I'm glad that I forget everything.*

I was hanging around in liberation square of a city, as if I was waiting for someone. Actually, I didn't wait for anyone. I was glad . . . I was smoking my pipe, feeling high. Meanwhile, I was just looking around and around. A bit later I caught sight of someone, wearing a leather coat. He was standing and watching me. I thought I would run away. Before I could make up my mind, he already stood right in front of me. He told me in a low voice: "Don't think I am watching you. You may safely go home." So I safely went home.

I was hanging out in liberation square of 1968. I was waiting for someone to approach. I didn't wait for anyone. I was... I was emotionally high. Meanwhile, I was just looking around and around. A bit later I caught sight of someone, wearing a leather coat.
He was standing and watching me.
I thought I would run away. Before I could make up my mind, he already told me in front of me: "He told me in a low voice: 'Don't think I'm anching you. You may safely go home.'
So I safely went home."
