MONOLOGUE by ENDRE TÓT

The weather was fine today too. I would like to tell you about my life. - - - - -

- - - - - I got up at 7.00 a. m. and we have decided lately to rise at 6 a. m. to do some morning gymnastics. I go down to the garden, in the garden I go to the garden for the garden. I go to the garden and I go to the garden, and I go to the garden in bed. - - - - -

- - - - - I'd like to do it now. Well, you see how I go to the garden in the garden with me. I go to the garden and I go to the garden. OH my GOD! - - - - -

- - - - - I'd like to do it
in the garden with me. I go to the garden
and I go to the garden. OH my GOD! - - - - -

- - - - - Why is it so? - - - - -
- Ben and Leonardo da Vinci and I go to the garden and I go to the garden. - - - - -

- - - - - Of course, everything is so. And in LOVE? Of course it is so. - - - - -

- - - - - Oh! - - - - - Pici my darling! - - - - -
- - - - - I go to the garden with me. I go to the garden and I go to the garden. OH my GOD! - - - - -

- - - - - One can't see the garden. Why is it so? One can't see the garden and I go to the garden. OH my GOD! - - - - -

The Poem

by

Shakespeare / Endre Tót
ENJOY OUT

To-morrow, and to-morrow, and to-morrow,
Creeps in this petty pace from day to day,
To the last syllable of recorded time;
And all our yesterday have lighted fools
The way to dusty death. Out-pace the world,
That struts and swags: the time is come
And then is heard no more: it is a tale
Told by an idiot, full of sound and fury,
Signifying nothing.

Miss H. P. asked me /Endre Tót/, why don't I say anything?

Answer: Because the word is beyond correct perception cooooooooooooo, awareness of the word depends on a system of nothing.

Two Poems

by

Shakespeare & Endre Tót

To-morrow, and to-morrow, and to-morrow,
Creeps in this petty pace from day to day.
To the last syllable of recorded time;
And all our yesterdays have lighted fools
The way to dusty death. Out, out, brief candle!
Life's but a walking shadow; a poor player,
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage,
And then is heard no more: it is a tale
Told by an idiot, full of sound and fury,
Signifying nothing.

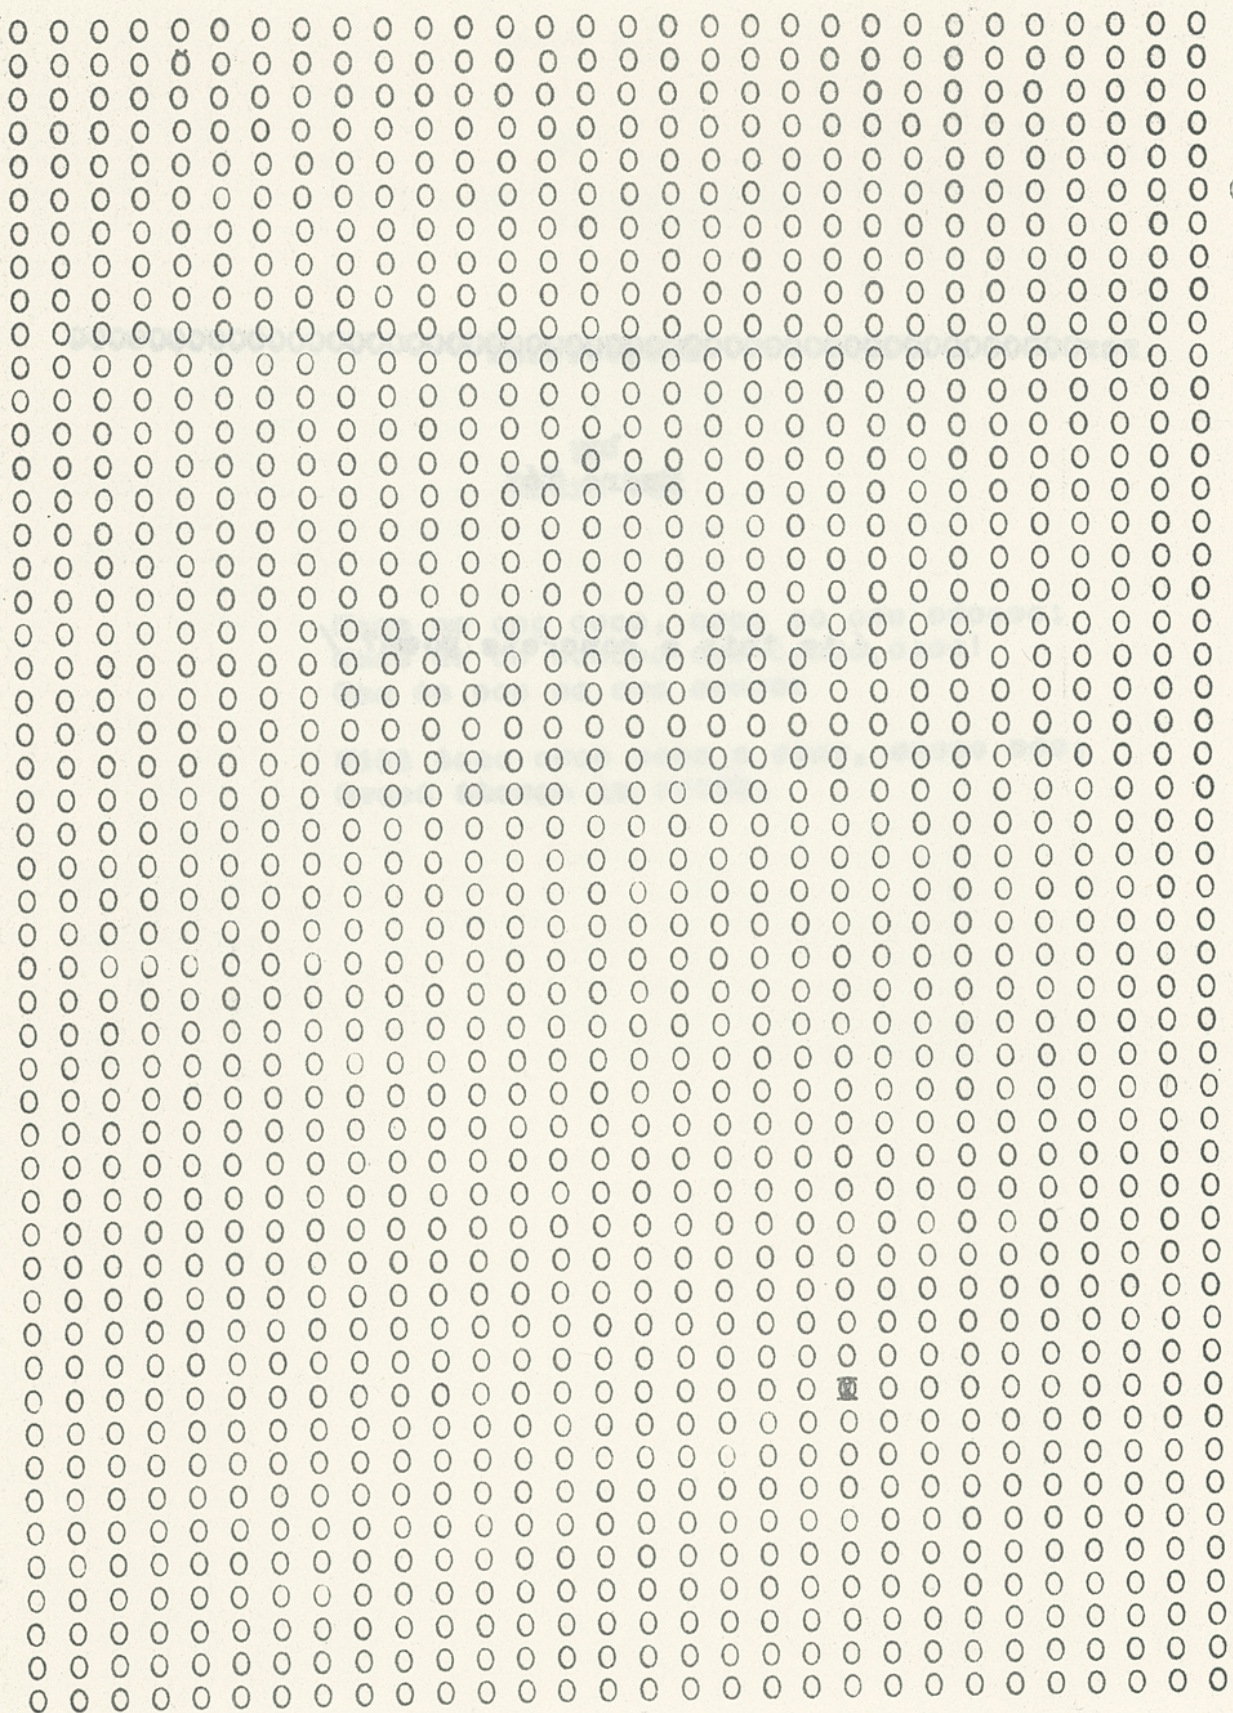

Oo-oooooooo, oo oo-oooooooo, oo oo-oooooooo,
Ooooo oo oo oo ooooo ooooo ooooo oo oo oo.
Oo oo ooooo ooooooooo oo ooooooooo ooooo;
Ooo oo oo ooooooooooooo ooooo ooooooooo ooooo Ooo oo oo ooooo ooooo. Ooo, oo, ooooo oooooo!
Oooo's oo o ooooooooo ooooo; o ooooo ooooo,
Oooo ooooo oo ooooo oo ooooo oo ooooo oo ooooo,
Ooo ooooo oo ooooo oo ooooo: oo oo o ooooo
Oooo oo oo ooooo, oooo oo ooooo oo ooooo, Ooooooooooooo oooooo.
